

Eastern Shore Lawmakers Worry Over H2B Visas

By KEIRA BENSON -- WMDT 1/9/2009

Some Eastern Shore lawmakers are urging Federal Departments to accept applications for seasonal workers even though the limit has been reached.

Maryland Senators Barbara Mikulski and Ben Cardin and Congressman Frank Kratovil say there should be a fair solution for those who filed applications for H2B visas on time. They say seasonal workers are needed for seafood processors, resorts and other businesses.
