

Kratovil Will Visit Crab Houses

By WMDT STAFF -- WMDT 3/19/2009

Freshman Congressman Frank Kratovil will be touring crab houses Friday. He plans to highlight the lack of workers available to pick crabs in local houses because of visa restrictions.

There are a limited number of H2B visas available for seasonal workers. Kratovil says that many people depend on the fishing industry, especially during the tough economic times.
